

Communication Business Excellence Integrators

Improvement of business and sales strategy and operationalization

25. mars 2010

CBE INTEGRATORS

- Who we are

Business Opportunities within ICT

- CBE Integrators consists of a team of experienced IT and Telecom specialists with broad expertise in areas such as consulting, engineering, business development, sales and marketing and improvement
- The team is structured, interdisciplinary, analytical and have many practical experiences, good implementation force and relationships with a number of people and industries
- The team can help in this case much of the development, management and commercialization of applications in a technology perspective and know what is required and expected of the various systems and components
- CBE Integrators focus primarily in the market for efficient use of modern forms of ICT applications, especially by contributing to the industrial actors (suppliers and users) will best exploit the commercial potential of such solutions